PUBLIC HEALTH & PROFESSIONAL DEGREE PROGRAMS

Aviva Must, PhD (Dean)
Health & Professional Degree Programs

- Public Health Programs

  Working across disciplines and global boundaries

  - MPH (with dual degrees with Med, Vet, Dental, Nutrition, Law, Biomedical Sciences, Urban & Environmental Policy)
  - DrPH (interdisciplinary)
  - MS-Health Communication
  - MS-Pain Research, Education, and Policy

- Certificates
  - Digital Health Communication,
  - Pain Research, Education, and Policy
Professional Degree Programs

- Physician Assistant Program (MS-Medical Science)
- MS-Biomedical Sciences
- MS-Development and Regulation of Medicines and Devices (DRMD)
  - DRMD Certificate
Department of Public Health and Community Medicine

- Academic home of the Public Health & Prof Degree Programs
- Clinical department of the medical school
- Tufts University employed-faculty
- 36 full-time faculty (8 MDs/27PhDs)
- 6 part-time faculty
- Large diverse adjunct and secondary faculty
Centers

- Center for Global Public Health
  ...dedicated to addressing global health issues through research and subsequent translation to implementation and practice.

- Center for the Study of Drug Development (affiliated)
  ... dedicated to developing strategic information to help drug developers, regulators, and policy makers improve the quality and efficiency of pharmaceutical and biopharmaceutical development, review, and utilization.
OUR CULTURE

- Collaborate extensively across departments, schools
- Provide many opportunities through our academic programs
  - Take courses as a non-matriculated student
  - Precept “field placements”, capstone projects, theses
  - Adjunct teaching
- Host a monthly research seminar (2nd Thursday monthly)
  Contact helen.arroyo@tufts.edu to be on our elist
- Contact me, if you’d like to get to know us better
  aviva.must@tufts.edu